

Morgan Dukes - Bio

Morgan began her career in Hattiesburg, Mississippi at radio station WMSU and later joined the staff of WHSY-FM. She decided to jump “in the box” of television by joining the team of WDAM-TV. She later returned to radio at places such as WNSL-FM (Laurel, MS), WBLX AM/FM (Mobile, AL), and WALR-FM (Atlanta, GA).

Morgan’s broadcasting career has kept her quite busy over the years performing duties from Television Reporter to Program Director. Her career has featured music from genres such as County, Top 40, R&B, and Gospel for a variety of stations including Atlanta’s GLORY 1340 and Sheridan Gospel Network’s “THE LIGHT”. Morgan’s broadcasting career also includes motion pictures, national commercials, and television shows which have aired on Daystar and TBN. Currently, she hosts “The Gospel Express” which is broadcasted nationwide weekdays (11AM-3PM est) on “THE LIGHT” so check your local listings or join her at www.sgnthelight.com.

In addition to her radio career, Morgan is constantly working with and pursuing various media opportunities. For instance, she is in the process of writing a book, developing shows for broadcast and has definite plans to return to the screen soon. So, keep your eyes and ears open.

Morgan’s broadcasting career began while she was yet a youngster. She was very intrigued with the local television and radio broadcasters in her hometown. In fact, so intrigued that she knew that she would one day join the ranks of them. Even as early as high school, she was featured on local television commercials and showed promise as a Student Representative for various speaking engagements on behalf of the school.

During the years of 1983-86, Morgan obtained a B. A. degree in Radio-TV-Film from the University of Southern Mississippi. When asked, “How she did it so quickly?” Morgan’s answer is always the same, “Perseverance!” Knowing she was destined for a career in broadcasting, she didn’t want to waste any time. “I was on a mission to reach my goals - no matter what.” With a daily radio broadcast, speaking engagements, and the many other things that keep Morgan busy, she’s happy to say, I am what God says I am, and I’m glad about it.
